Tri Colour Activity

"Almost all creativity involves purposeful play." – Abraham Maslow

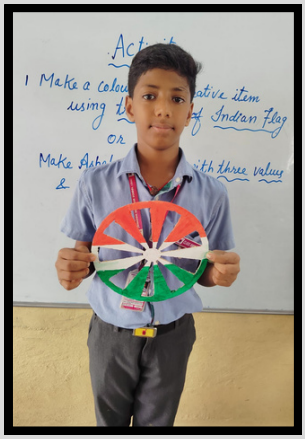

An activity was conducted on the theme of creating decorative items using the three colours of the Indian National Flag and the Ashoka Chakra, along with three values that reflect the spirit of our nation. The children actively participated with great enthusiasm and creativity. They beautifully decorated their classrooms, spreading the spirit of Independence Day and patriotism throughout the school. The activity not only enhanced their artistic skills but also helped them understand the values of unity, respect, and love for the country.

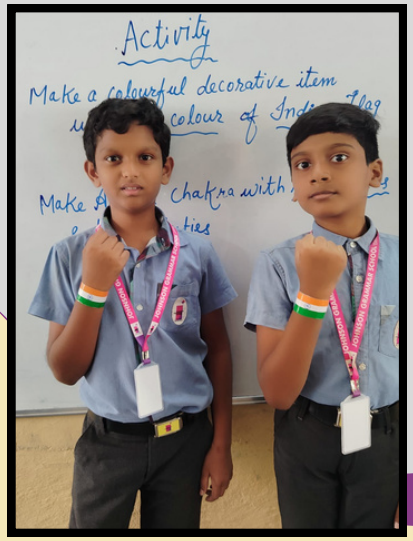

Bonalu Celebrations

Celebrating the past, cherishing the present, inspiring the future.

Bonalu is a beautiful thread that connects generations.

The vibrant spirit and rich cultural heritage of Telangana came alive at JGS with a colourful and captivating Bonalu-themed Assembly! The assembly introduced our students to the significance of Bonalu, a traditional festival celebrated with devotion, gratitude, and community spirit. The celebration beautifully showcased the cultural traditions of Telangana through music, dance, storytelling, and colourful presentations. Our students enthusiastically participated in the programme, bringing alive the festive energy through their confident performances and traditional attire. Their presentation reflected not only their talent but also their appreciation for our diverse cultural heritage.

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Our School celebrated the spirit of Independence Day with great pride, enthusiasm, and patriotic fervour. The celebration was a heartfelt tribute to the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and a reminder of our responsibility as citizens of a free nation. The programme commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag, followed by the singing of the National Anthem. The campus echoed with patriotic spirit as students presented a vibrant array of cultural performances, speeches, patriotic songs, and dances, celebrating India's rich heritage and unity in diversity. The inspiring performances by our young learners reflected the values of freedom, courage, unity, responsibility, and love for the nation. The celebration concluded with a renewed pledge to contribute positively towards building a stronger, harmonious, and progressive India.

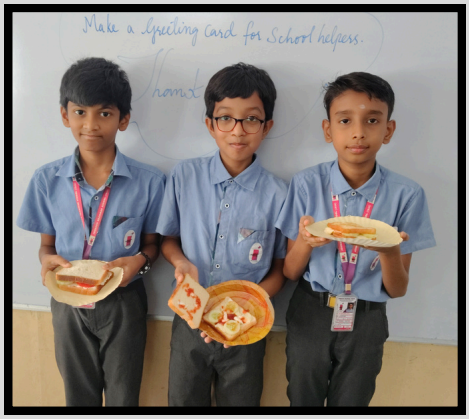

Fireless Cooking

"No stove, no flame, but plenty of taste. Learning through cooking is never a waste!"

The young chefs put on their creative aprons for an exciting Fireless Cooking Activity. With no flames and plenty of imagination, the students of grades VI and VII prepared a variety of delicious, nutritious, and visually appealing dishes using simple ingredients. From thoughtful presentation to creative combinations, every dish reflected their enthusiasm and resourcefulness.

संस्कृतं संस्कृतेर्मूलम्।

“Sanskrit is the root of our culture.”

Sanskrit is not merely a language of the past but a treasure that continues to inspire and connect us with our rich cultural heritage. Our school conducted a vibrant and enriching Sanskrit Assembly that celebrated the beauty, richness, and timeless wisdom of the Sanskrit language. The assembly began with a soulful Sanskrit prayer, followed by inspiring Sanskrit shlokas and thought-provoking messages. Students showcased their talent through Sanskrit speeches, poems, dialogues, and cultural presentations, highlighting the significance of Sanskrit in our heritage and daily lives. The performances beautifully reflected the students’ confidence, creativity, and appreciation for India’s ancient language and culture. The assembly served as a wonderful reminder that The event concluded with a message encouraging students to learn, preserve, and take pride in the timeless language of Sanskrit.

Inter-House Singing Competition

"Where individual voices blend into one house rhythm, true strength and harmony are born."

An Inter-House Singing Competition was conducted on 3rd August on the theme "Patriotism." With great enthusiasm and high spirits, each house participated and presented its best performance to outshine the competition. The students, with creative props, filled the atmosphere with melodious patriotic songs. Their performances mesmerized everyone and created a sense of pride and unity among the audience. It was truly challenging for the judges to decide the winners, as every house delivered an outstanding performance.

Interhouse Dance Competition

"Great dancers are not great because of their technique; they are great because of their passion."

An Inter-House Dance Competition was conducted on 7th August on the theme "AI and humanity: Indian cultural heritage" with great enthusiasm and excitement.

Each house participated wholeheartedly and showcased its talent through vibrant and captivating performances. The dancers, dressed in colourful and elegant costumes, lit up the stage with their energy, creativity, and coordination. Their mesmerizing performances left the audience spellbound and filled the atmosphere with joy and admiration. The competition was fierce, making it a challenging task for the judges to select the winners. Every house displayed remarkable teamwork, dedication, and passion, making the event a grand success.

Rakhi-Making Activity

"Threads of Love, Ties of Togetherness-The rakhi thread may be thin, but the bond it represents is unbreakable."

Raksha Bandhan is a beautiful festival that celebrates the special bond of care, and affection between brothers and sisters. To mark this occasion, a creative Rakhi-Making Activity was organised, providing students with an opportunity to express their creativity while understanding the significance of the festival. The students of grade VI and VII enthusiastically participated in designing colourful and innovative rakhis using threads, beads, ribbons and decorative materials. They explored different patterns and designs, adding their own personal touch to each rakhi. The activity encouraged creativity, fine motor skills and artistic expression among the students. It also helped students appreciate the values of respect, sharing, and strengthening relationships. The cheerful participation and colourful creations made the activity enjoyable and memorable for everyone.
